

PRE- DOCTORAL AND POST-DOCTORAL STUDENT POSTER AWARD WINNERS

Post-Doctoral Poster Award 1st Place Winner: Mei Cui, MD, PhD - Title: "Gene-Environment Interactions: Mutation in PINK1 Enhances Neurotoxicity to Parkinsonian Toxicants." Mentor: Kim Tieu, PhD, University of Rochester, Rochester, NY.

Post-Doctoral Poster Award 2nd Place Winner: Maryse Bouchard, PhD - Title: "Manganese Exposure Through Tap Water and Neurobehavioral Functions Among Primary School Children in Québec (Canada)." Mentor: David Bellinger, PhD, Harvard School of Public Health, Boston, MA. Pictured with Dr. Morris Cranmer.

The Morris Cranmer Pre-Doctoral Student Award 1st Place Winner: Sarah Latchney - Title: "Multipotent Neural Stem Cells are Targets for TCDD Actions: A Role for AHR in Neurogenesis?" Mentor: Lisa Opanashuk, PhD, University of Rochester, Rochester, NY. Pictured with Drs. Morris Cranmer and Lisa Opanashuk.

The Morris Cranmer Pre-Doctoral Student Award 3rd Place Winner (tie): Deborah Soellner - Title: "Accumulation of Caffeine and its Metabolites in the Fetal Rat Brain Following Low-Dose Chronic Prenatal Exposure." Mentor: Joseph Nunez, PhD and Keith Lookingland, PhD, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI. Pictured with Dr. Morris Cranmer.

The Morris Cranmer Pre-Doctoral Student Award 2nd Place Winner: April Neal - Title: "Disruption of Developing Glutamatergic Synapses in Hippocampal Neurons by Lead." Mentor: Tomás Guilarte, PhD, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, Baltimore, MD. Pictured with Drs. Morris Cranmer and Tomás Guilarte.

The Morris Cranmer Pre-Doctoral Student Award 3rd Place Winner (tie): Katie Sokolowski - Title: "Methylmercury (MeHg) Exposure at Low Doses Activates Caspase-3 in Postnatal Rat Hippocampus." Mentor: Emanuel DiCicco-Bloom, PhD, Rutgers & Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, Piscataway, NJ. Pictured with Drs. Morris Cranmer and Emanuel DiCicco-Bloom.

PRE- DOCTORAL AND POST-DOCTORAL STUDENT TRAVEL AWARD WINNERS

Pre-Doctoral Trainee Travel Award Winner: Kim McDowell - Title: "Development of Progressive, Environmental Neurotoxin-Induced Model of Parkinson's Disease in Rats." Mentor: Paul Yarowsky, PhD, and Jessica Mong, University of Maryland School of Medicine, Baltimore, MD.

Post-Doctoral Trainee Travel Award Winner: Maryse Bouchard, PhD - Title: "Manganese Exposure Through Tap Water and Neurobehavioral Functions Among Primary School Children in Québec (Canada)." Mentor: David Bellinger, PhD, Harvard School of Public Health, Boston, MA. Pictured with Dr. Morris Cranmer.

Pre-Doctoral Trainee Travel Award Winner: April Neal - Title: "Disruption of Developing Glutamatergic Synapses in Hippocampal Neurons by Lead." Mentor: Tomás Guilarte, PhD, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, Baltimore, MD. Pictured with Drs. Morris Cranmer and Tomás Guilarte.

Post-Doctoral Trainee Travel Award Winner: Sameera Dasari, PhD - Title: "Postnatal Methylmercury Exposure in vivo Alters Developmental Forms of Short-Term Synaptic Plasticity in the Visual Cortex of Rats." Mentor: Yukun Yuan, PhD, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI. Pictured with Dr. Morris Cranmer.

